HEAVY FIGHTING AMONG LADYSMITH.

The Armored Train Contingent Loses 7 Men. All well at Ladysmith on the 13th. Kimberley Safe on the 11th.

WINNIPEG, Nov. 18th, '99.

Gen. Joubert's reported death was untrue. He has been sick but has now recovered.

Heavy fighting between Orange Free State troops and the British south of Ladysmith took place on November 14th. The losses are not yet known. Wednesday's losses in the armored train engagement have been ascertained to be, wounded or missing, Dublin Fusiliers—Capt. Haddan, attached to Lieut. Frankland, and 44 men; Durban light infantry—Capt. Wyle and 24 men.

Heavy musketry fire was heard in direction of Ladysmith at 2 o'clock this morning, but there was no sound of cannon.

Essex, Nov. 17th: The bombardment of Ladysmith is continued almost daily with big guns. The Boers endeavored on Tuesday, Nov. 14th, to make a closer investment but were repulsed. Gen. White following this up with a sortie which drove the Boers from all their positions with considerable loss. The Boers are reported to be seriously short of provisions.

The war office has received the following despatch from Gen. Buller, dated Cape Town, Friday, Nov. 17th: A report from Kimberley, Saturday, Nov. 11th, says all well. Reports from Ladysmith, Sunday, Nov. 12th, and Monday, Nov. 13th, say all well.

LOCAL.

Mrs. I. S. Dox, of Clover Bar, is seriously ill.

W. T. Livoock, of the Hudson Bay Co., is in Winnipeg.

Mrs. Carson has opened a restaurant in the building west of Collins' harness shop.

W. E. Gorman, lately employed with Stovel & Strang, leaves in the morning for Fort Steele, B. C.

The Sardinian, with the Canadian contingent on board, is expected to reach Cape Town on Sunday next.

The Deering Implement Co. have secured a timber limit on the river and are putting in a large portable saw mill.

A public meeting for the discussion of municipal affairs will be held in Robertson hall on Tuesday evening the 28th inst.

A sale of art work and fancy articles will be held at the residence of Mrs. E. Leohy, Queen street, on December 1st and 2nd.

Dr. McInnis, (D. D. S.), will be the opposition candidate at Brandon in the Manitoba elections. He is a brother of Dr. H. L. McInnis, of Edmonton.

C. B. HALPIN, formerly of Edmonton, is starting a paper in Calgary, to be called "The Albertan." The paper will be issued twice a week, and will be liberal in politics.

There will be a special meeting of the Ladies Hospital Aid society at the hospital to-morrow (Tuesday) the 21st inst., at 3 p. m. A full meeting is particularly requested.

C. O. MARTIN, H. C. Martin and W. H. Bennett, from Wisconsin, and two Minnesota delegates from Todd Co., Minnesota, arrived on Saturday to see Alberta. They left today to look over the country west of St. Albert.

OTTO DEZAK, the young man who was thrown from his head of grain at Fort Saskatchewan last week and buried beneath the sacks, lies in a very precarious condition at the Fort. He has never recovered consciousness.

A FANCH of ice near Fraser's mill has furnished excellent skating for the last week to a large number of skaters. On the edge the ice is unsafe and one to venture some skater on Saturday went through but succeeded in getting out again.

EX-COUSTE, W. G. MACGILLICUDDY, N. W. M. P., came in from the Landing Saturday. He has taken his discharge from the force and will go into ranching at Buffalo lake. Before leaving the Landing he was tendered a farewell dance by the settlers there.

BLISS ice was running in the river freely all yesterday and crossing was made only by row boat. The continual rubbing of the ice has worn the false work supports at the water line so that blocks had to be nailed around to prevent them being too seriously weakened.

E. BROSSIER, of St. Albert, has purchased Jos. Chénier's half interest in the firm of Gariepy & Chénier, Edmonton. Mr. Brossier will still reside at St. Albert, but will be represented here by his son who has for some time been connected with the firm of Gariepy & Chénier.

J. FLYNN arrived from the Landing on Saturday. The Athabasca was almost frozen over when he left. The two temperance hotels are doing a good business. Work is being pushed on McDougall & Secord's steamboat to have it ready for the opening of navigation in the spring.

A TEAM belonging to M. Enright ran away this morning while hitched to a lumber wagon. They turned the corner and as full speed ran into J. R. McDonald's livery stable. The hind wheels struck the side of the door and the reach broke. The front wheels and team arrived inside uninjured.

A LOCAL newspaper has many important duties to fulfill. Not the least of these is that of placing the town and district in and for which it is published before the outside public, with the view of attracting settlement and investment. Northern Alberta is fortunate in having so many newspapers to advertise its several centres of population and business. And it is not more fortunate in the number than in the quality of these papers. The trouble is that the papers are not good enough for their field, but that the field is not yet sufficient for so many papers. However, as the purpose of the papers is to widen their field by promoting settlement there are fair prospects of the field soon becoming wide enough for the papers. Amongst the places which are fortunate enough to have a local paper, none are more fortunate than Leduc in being the home of the Alberta Sun, edited by R. C. Edwards. The Sun and the Bulletin are not run upon the same or even similar lines, except that local flavor is the strong feature of each. At the same time Mr. Edwards' special style and talent has caused Leduc to be heard of far and wide as never would have been had it not been for Mr. Edwards' talents and enterprise displayed in the Alberta Sun.

This lower ferry is running to-day. The upper ferry is being taken out of the water. Dr. HARRISON is on a professional trip among the Indians at Stony Plain and Riviere Qui Barre.

J. W. BENOIST, cartoonist and entertainer, is billed to appear in Robertson Hall here on the 2nd December.

George Gouin, though weak, is doing very well. The bullet was extracted on the 10th, and the nine perforations made by it in the incisions have all been sealed. Dr. Inglis is still hopeful of his recovery, though danger is by no means over. Mrs. Archibald, mother of Mrs. Harris, arrived from Moncton, N. B.

The evidence of Jos. Bourgeois, of St. Albert, was taken here last week under a commission issued out of the British Columbia courts in a case involving mineral rights on the Centre Star and Iron Mask mines, Rossland, B. C. J. C. F. Bown was commissioner. N. D. Beck, Q. C., and P. L. McNamara appeared for the plaintiffs and Wm. Short for the defendants. Mr. Bourgeois was one of the discoverers of the Centre Star and Iron Mask.

THE WEATHER.

The splendid weather which has been almost continual for the past two weeks was varied last night by a light fall of snow. To-day the weather is bright and pleasant again, and the snow is fast disappearing. The generally favorable weather of the last two or three weeks has given farmers a chance to stack and thresh. Every available machine in the district has been at work, but there is a large quantity of grain yet to be threshed.

LOCAL MARKETS.

Saturday was a record breaker in grain deliveries. It was by long odds the biggest day for the farmer and buyer that has been since the season opened. From 6 a. m. to late at night the space in front of the Dowlmilling mill was blocked with teams. At one time 100 teams were counted there. For wheat, prices were 58c to 60c. At Strathcona 65c was paid for No. 1 hard. Oats sold at 23c to 25c, and barley 40c. Deliveries of barley are very light. Apparently there is not much for sale.

In Edmonton oats are selling to-day at 22c.

Butter 15c to 20c.
Eggs 25c to 30c.
Potatoes 25c.

EDMONTON BULLETIN, NOV. 20TH., 1899

MINING IN ONENICA.

The following information as to gold mining operations in the Onenica district of British Columbia is of interest to people here from the fact that from Edmonton by way of Peace river is the natural freight route to that district:

Vancouver World: Col. Wright and J. H. Davidson, of the 43rd, mining and milling company of Onenica, who arrived in the city several days ago from the north, went down to Victoria this afternoon. They intend to interview the government with the object of securing the expenditure of some money on the trail between Quesselle and Stewart's lake, on the road to the Onenica, an improvement that is very useful and which would be of very much benefit to the district. Col. Wright came out by way of the Cariboo trail, and found it much better than when he last travelled over it. During the present season $1,500 was spent on it by the government, and some necessary bridges were put in and other work looked after. The government will be asked to make the present trail a wagon road, so that some of the fine prairie lands of the district may be opened up. Col. Wright says that there is some fine land around the lake and potatoes and cauliflower and other vegetables grow there in very good crops.

A rather quiet summer was spent at Manson Creek. Work there was carried on by Col. Wright's large party and now there are about 3,000 feet of pipe in place ready for the large hydraulic operations that are to be begun in the spring. The property is all ready for the clean-up. This would have been started this season, but the weather put matters about six weeks behind and the result was that it was thought better to put off actual operations until spring. There is another shipment of pipe at Stewart lake, which will be sent in next spring and with this ready everything else is in shape for a good summer's work. Mr. Sparks, the president of the company, was in last summer, and he is well satisfied with the showing already made.

FINANCIAL RETURNS.

The financial returns of the Dominion for the four months ending October 31, show last year's records are being far outstripped. There is a large reduction, almost two millions of dollars, in capital expenditure. Up to the end of October the revenue was $16,000, 481, a gain over the same four months of 1898 of $1,202,784. The expenditure reached $9,178,363, as compared with $8,520,180 in 1898, an increase of $656,213, leaving a net gain of $644,571. The following is the statement of revenue and expenditure for the four months up to October, with comparative returns for 1898:

WATERWORKS.

The town council has received a large amount of valuable information regarding waterworks as a result of a motion for enquiry moved some weeks ago.

BRANDON.

Population 6,000.
City owns works.
Cost $105,000.
Total piping 9 miles 12 inch main, 8,800 feet; 10 inch main, 1,250 feet; 9 inch, 1,000 feet. All branch pipes are 6 inches with 4 inch cross connecting pipes.

Number of houses taking water, 390. Revenue $7,000 a year.
Direct pressure system, 80 pounds at pumps and 30 to 50 in houses. Mains are 9 feet underground. Should be 10 feet.

Rates per year, 1 room house $5, 5 and 6 rooms $8, 7 rooms and over $10. These rates are thought to be about 20 per cent too low.

RAT PORTAGE.

Population 7,000 to 10,000.
Town owns works, and thinks that right principle.

Cost $500,000. The great cost is due to having to lay the pipes in solid rock.

Length of mains 5 miles. Largest main 12 inches.
Direct pressure system. Pumping plant duplicate, two 1 1/2 million gallon tubular expansion surface condensing pumps, carry 60 pounds pressure for domestic use and 100 to 175 for fire.

Rates: Private house per quarter $2.80 with extras $4.80. Extra rooms 35 cents each.

ORANGEVILLE.

Population 3,000.
Town owns works.
Cost $45,000.
Seven miles of Mains, of 10, 8, 6 and 4 inch sizes.

Gravity system for domestic purposes and elevated tank on steel tower 200 feet above the business portion of the town. Two 16x12 steam pumping engines for fire purposes.

Works cost $55,000. First put in by a company and recently taken over by the town. People well satisfied with the change. Stand pipe system for domestic purposes and direct pressure for fire purposes.

Rates per year: Dwelling of 5 rooms $5.56. Over 5 rooms $6.67. Offices $5 to $11.

GUELPH.

Population 10,900.
City owns works.
Cost $98,000 in 79-80. Additions since cost $40,000.
Eighteen miles of Mains, sizes 12, 10, 8, 6 and 4 inches. Over half are 6 inches.

Receipts $13,000, expenses $5,000 leaving $8,000 for interest and depreciation.

Direct pressure system. Greater part of city 10 to 60 feet above pumps. Pressure at pumps 80 pounds which gives 50 to 60 and 70 throughout the city, for domestic purposes. Fire pressure 100 to 120 pounds at pumps.

At height of Edmonton above river, 200 feet, a pressure of 170 pounds would be required at the pumps to give 80 pounds in the town. Consequently pumps of greater horse power and stonger feed main would be needed than at Guelph.

Rates: Five roomed dwelling $1.69 per quarter, 7 roomed $2. 20 per cent off if paid when due.

ARMOURD TRAINS.

The armoured train is becoming a factor in the science of modern war and it has already become a prominent feature of the Transvaal war. So far as can be gathered from the despatches there are now three fully equipped armoured trains in South Africa, or, rather, three prior to the destruction by the Boers of the one from Mafeking.

Armoured trains are hastily constructed affairs, consisting of a locomotive and a few wagons, the engine generally being located about the middle of the train.

The wagons and locomotive are covered by boiler-plating three-quarters of an inch thick, as firmly riveted as time will allow. One of these trains was constructed at Mafeking, where there are several railway shops, the town being on the new main line from the Cape to Bulawayo.

The locomotive is the only part of the train that does not carry guns, the steel casing being solely to protect the mechanism of the engine from the shot of the enemy. The remainder of the armour, however, is thickly perforated with port holes, through which guns of varying calibre peep, the Maxim, Nordenf and Gatling being the most serviceable weapons for this kind of work. The smaller holes are for the marksmen, and usually the deadliest shots in a regiment are, when possible, selected for the position. It takes an expert marksman to shoot with satisfactory results from a quickly moving train. Usually an armoured train is also supplied with a powerful searchlight, in view of a possible night attack.

Of course, the boiler tubing can offer no resistance to artillery. In fact, rifle shots fired at short range will sometimes penetrate the plates, and to meet such a possibility sand bags are often provided, as was the case in the Egyptian campaign, when the Sirdar found the armoured train of great service.

The man in command of an armoured train thinks first, when an emergency arises, of his engine. So long as that remains in workable condition the odds are on his side: but once the vital parts of the locomotive are damaged, the outlook becomes serious, for, of course, an armoured train can only carry a very small body of men, who would be quickly surrounded by the enemy, who might number hundreds or thousands. The chances are that an armoured train could not be damaged to such an extent unless artillery was used, or some powerful explosive.

WAR NEWS BY MAIL.

Despatch from Boer camp at Elandslagte; Ladysmith completely encircled by Boer forces. British second big gun successfully played on Boer position on Bulwer Hill in front of Ladysmith. Firing of heavy guns commenced early this morning. Gen. Buller has telegraphed from south of Ladysmith that Boer batteries opened heavy fire with big guns and dropped shells into works around Ladysmith. Pretoria force was in a tight place having taken up position commanded by British fire which was so hot that the position became untenable. The big guns, however, saved the situation. London; War office received the following from Buller. Have received from Pretoria telegram dated Nov. 15th, of which the following is purport: Officer commanding troops at Estcourt reports at midday that an armored train left this morning with a company of Dublin Fusiliers and a company of Buffs. The officers encountered a party of Boers and began to withdraw. While retreating some of the trucks became derailed and the Buffs turned back and advanced towards the enemy while the rest of the train appears to have returned without them. The officer commanding troops reports that he was sending mounted troops to cover their withdrawal but that about 100 are missing.

War news at present consists of a superfluity of conjecture and a dearth of facts; and the condition is not likely to be changed until Ladysmith is relieved or other developments occur there. Its garrison is putting up a brave defense, all that men, and brave men, can do, but the latest reports state that the relief army will not be able to reach there until Nov. 20th. The Boers have mounted heavy artillery, brought apparently from the north for the purpose, and are using every endeavor to reduce the town. A party which rode out from Estcourt on the afternoon of the 9th to observe the bombardment of Ladysmith, could see a "Long Tom," a forty pounder, positioned on the railway side of the Bulwer, firing at intervals of six to eight minutes. Another gun was observed in operation a little distance away. Puffs of smoke were discernible on the opposite side, showing that Ladysmith was withstanding a big bombardment. The locality of the town was nothing but a huge cauldron of smoke.

Despatches from Estcourt say it has been ascertained that the British have laid concrete beds for firing the Lytle naval guns, showing that there is no foundation for the fear that the Lytle ammunition at Ladysmith has been exhausted. It is also reported that the same guns, which were fired from the hills, have been seen in Ladysmith, indicating that the Boer bombardment has been to some extent effective.

Four troops, comprising over 4,700 men, arrived at Cape Town on the 10th, and two of them, with 2,000 troops, were despatched for Durban. A despatch of the 16th says: The troops, comprising the 16th, arrived at Durban, bringing the reinforcements. The troops now landed there up to 5,275. Five other troops are now en route from Cape Town to Durban. Total reinforcements which have arrived in South Africa since last Friday, the 10th, amount to 19,000 men, chiefly infantry, nearly 13,000 horses and mules and three batteries of field artillery and a number of quick firing maxims. The fact that the British have proceeded to East London is taken to mean that General Buller is satisfied that the troops which have already landed or are now on the way to Durban will be sufficient to carry out his plans for the relief of Ladysmith.

The force which will ultimately serve in South Africa, says the London News, may be made up of 100,000 men, a splendidly appointed army of seventy thousand men or more, in the prime of life, and having had the best training we can give them; while, in order to make up this body, we have only called to the colors less than a third of the reserve that is available. The army under Sir Buller, when it has reached South Africa, will undoubtedly be the largest purely British army with which Great Britain has ever begun a war. To the Crimea she sent 25,000 infantry, 60 guns, and about 1,000 cavalry. During the Waterloo campaign she has a little over 30,000 British troops, and even that included the "German Legion," which was then reckoned among them. At Waterloo she sent only 15,000 British infantry. During the Tel-el-Kebir campaign she sent to Egypt a little over 30,000 men. Taking now into account the fact that the force from Cape Colony to England is fully 6,000 miles, and that from the Cape round to Durban is 1,200 miles, it is safe to say that the British army of transporting an army such as this over such a distance is the greatest of its kind that has ever been undertaken in the history of man. No other nation has ever transported, or could have transported, within so short a time a force so great an army.

An undated despatch from Kimberley says: The Boers ceased shelling November 7, about 7 p. m., having fired at intervals all day long, some seventy shells, a majority of them falling in debris houses and open spaces. The average range was 8,700 yards. One cooking pot was injured. There was a brisk market for fragments. The choice specimens fetching $10. The Boers apparently were shelling at the extreme range of their guns. Yesterday's attempt, regarded as a failure. The weather was splendid. The bombardment was continued briskly all morning. On November 8 one shell narrowly missed the Dutch church. There were no casualties. The shells are of a very inferior quality and seemingly fired by amateurs. One almost intact shell was picked up. It weighed 8 1/2 pounds. The Boers have been firing from three positions. So far the Boers activity causes little alarm.

The last infantry battalions under orders for South Africa left England on the 11th, and the last of the Humber regiments, leaving the Household Brigade, the only cavalry still to be dispatched, and last but not least, the first battery of the Howitzer artillery has started. Great things are expected of the Howitzer battery, which were only three in the British army. These five inch breech Howitzers are claimed to be of superior character and are expected to be particularly serviceable in removing the Boers from the hills.

Land dealer: A delegation of the town council of Strathcona consisting of Messrs. McChalmers, McInnes, and McInnes, waited upon the minister of interior on his arrival Wednesday evening and brought to his attention the urgent need of new immigration buildings being erected at once, also the desirability of a customs office being established here, and a resident interpreter for the benefit of foreign settlers arriving. The representative of the delegation was endorsed by Mr. Oliver, M. P., who was present and the minister promised to give them immediate attention.

To talk of a bazaar before it takes place makes one afraid of his pocket, but to speak of it after gives joy to the heart—the joy of having performed a good action.

It is not my intention to give a detailed account of the bazaar. Most of our citizens assisted at it, and saw for themselves the devotedness of our ladies. To those who did not it would be impossible to convey a just idea of it, for charity and devotedness excite our admiration, but defy all attempt at expression.

"Charity works wonders," says the proverb. Our Catholic ladies have worked wonders indeed. Have we not seen them leaving their occupations, sacrificing their leisure hours, going from house to house asking alms for the construction of the house of God? They were not discouraged either by difficulties, nor by refusal, nor even by rebuffs. What is the cause of this ardor? Nothing else than zeal and charity. These ladies would blush to beg for any other cause but that of God, and I do not fear to say that these same ladies, begging from door to door, or standing for long hours behind a counter, are heroines of heroines, yes, heroines of charity.

To name them is useless, for everyone knows and admires them. To name them would take too long. All children as well as grown-up persons rivalled each other in zeal and ardor.

Yet I think I shall be speaking only to the public mind, if I give special mention to some whose work was more hidden, and less agreeable. I refer to the cooking department, conducted by Mr. Bilodeau, Mesdames Pigeon and Huot.

Again in the name of all the Catholic of Edmonton, I must thank our Protestant friends for the help and encouragement they have tendered. They came in large numbers; but special thanks are due to Mrs. White, Miss Clara Lawder, and Messrs. Whiteley and McCauley for their brilliant musical talents. The zeal was unlimited, the success unprecedented. The clear profit is over $900.

Our venerated pastor, the Rev. H. Leduc, O. M. I., who was prevented by sickness from assisting at the bazaar, must have been greatly consoled at the sight of so much devotedness and so great a success.

It is a joy for us to think that this bazaar will enable him to realize the desire of his heart—to say the first mass in the new church on the 8th of December next, the 35th anniversary of his ordination to the priesthood. Ten years ago, on the occasion of his silver jubilee he opened the beautiful church at Calgary. What a joy and consolation for him on this 35th anniversary to open another temple to the glory of God and of Mary Immaculate!

On that day we shall gather around him to testify our attachment and our gratitude, and to express to him our good will ever to second him in his efforts, and God who has promised that not even a cup of cold water given in his name, shall go without its reward, will bless our venerated pastor, and all those devoted persons who have helped him and desire still to do so.

Should they be named? The position is embarrassing. I know not which way to turn. Shall I name them or not, those ladies so devoted to the work of the bazaar? To name them is to edify the public, to satisfy their curiosity; but on the other hand it is risking to wound their modesty,—risking to puzzle a wiser head than that of the editor of these lines.

Well, then, I will give a short sketch of the bazaar.

In the first place, much credit is due to Mesdames Roy, Kelly and Gariepy, who, with so much zeal and tact, saw to all, helped, directed and encouraged.

Then Mrs. Berube, Mrs. Keegan, Miss McCallum, seconded by Mrs. St. Jean, Mrs. White, Misses Degagne, McCallum, Duplessis who undertook the contests. Their success has been beyond all expectations, and their zeal above all praise.

The staff of Mrs. Beck and Mrs. Prince attracted the elite of the town. All stood lost in admiration before the dainty articles.

At the lottery table, Mrs. Silver and Mrs. Gallagher, ladies of talents and experience, solved the difficult problem of pleasing everyone, both buyer and seller.

At the toy and fruit table the Misses Gariepy and Mrs. Poquette attracted no less by their winning and amiable manners than by the cheapness of their toys and the sweetness of their fruits.

Madame St. Jean and Miss Voyer found means of refreshing all agreeably with ice cream.

At the table d'hôte, Mrs. Charbonneau, McAllister, Pigeon served meals that the lovers of good things remember still; and if each one rose from the table contented, they owed it to the culinary skill of Mr. Bilodeau and Mesdames Pigeon and Huot.

From time to time Madame St. Jean, Miss Clara Lawder, Miss Charbonneau, Messrs. Bilodeau, Whiteley, McCauley, Dr. Roy, by their musical talents, made us forget the bazaar, at the same time as they contributed to its success.

Misses de Cazes and Larue presided at the fish pond, where there were no unlucky fishers.

To call on anyone for a service was to afford pleasure. Such was the case with Messrs. Beck, Colling, Kelly and O'Shaughnessy.

A number of children flew here and there, and by their attractive manners gained admission to the hearts and to the purses.

My task is done. Pardon me for being so lengthy. If I have had the misfortune to forget anyone, let it be remembered they will have the most merit.

All rivalled with each other in zeal and devotedness. All have the same merit. To all, then, equal thanks and gratitude.

We regret that sad occurrences prevented Mr. and Mrs. Larue from assisting personally with the devotedness which they ever evince on such occasions.
